

Office of Integrity and Ethical Development

Fall 2014 Workshop Schedule

No RSVP Needed & FREE for All Students
Freshmen Earn LINK Points for Attending

Topics Include: Integrity, Ethics, Professionalism & Conflict Resolution

| Workshop Topic | Date / Time / Place |
|---|--|
| True Friendship The college experience brings individuals together very quickly where it is easy to call someone friend after only a few weeks. Learn what it takes to develop a true friendship and what characteristics make a person a friend. Discussions will also include how to deal with issues which may test a friendship on a college campus. | Wednesday, September 17th 6:00-7:30pm Neptune Community |
| How to Get a Picture Perfect Transcript Learn what scholarship committees, employers, student organizations, and graduate schools want to see on a college transcript. Discover the real skills, qualities, and characteristics being demanded in today's graduate programs and workplaces. | Thursday, September 18th 3:00-4:00pm Student Union 223 Freshman Receive 500 Link Points |
| Academic Integrity Academic Integrity is a characteristic every student wants associated with their name and reputation inside the classroom. Acting with integrity in academia is more than not cheating on an exam or plagiarizing a paper. Learn some fundamentals and basics to demonstrating academic integrity inside the classroom on a daily basis. | Monday, September 22nd 3:00-4:00 pm Student Union 223 Freshman Receive 500 Link Points |
| Creating a Peaceful Living Space with Others Maybe a friendship has not evolved between individuals living together. Guess what? That is OK. You may not be friends but everyone is entitled to be treated with civility, common courtesy, and respect. Learn how to co-exist with others when a friendship has not formed. | Tuesday, September 30th 6:00-7:00pm Apollo Lake Lounge Room 148 |
| Communicating with Professors/Faculty/Instructors Professionalism is the key to establishing a great relationship with one's professors. Learn how to appropriately ask for help, how to handle a meeting during office hours, and ask for a letter of recommendation. | Wednesday, October 1st 3:00-4:00pm Student Union 223 Freshman Receive 500 Link Points |
| The Art of Email Etiquette Email is the number one way we (students, professors, and administrators) communicate with each other on campus. Learn all of the elements required in sending a professional, well-written, and action driven email. | Thursday, October 30th 3:00-4:00pm Student Union 220 Freshman Receive 500 Link Points |
| Successfully Handling Group Dynamics What is the one element that separates a group project in college from being on a committee, there is a grade associated with a class project. The stakes are greater and relying on others to perform at a higher level can add to stress to an already delicate collaboration. Learn how to manage communication, criticism, and accountability of yourself and others in a group setting. | Thursday, November 20th 3:00-4:00pm Student Union 223 Freshman Receive 500 Link Points |