

SEEK to INSPIRE

Do you know a Student who may qualify for our program?
Are you interested in becoming a Mentor?
Can you provide a Research or Internship experience?

About our Students:

Student Support Services (TRiO) Programs

- PRIME STEM is for students in Science, Technology, Engineering, Math and Health Sciences majors (120 qualified students)
- Project BEST is for students in all majors at UCF (140 qualified students)

Student Eligibility:

- Be a first generation college student and/or
- Meet federal low income guidelines (PELL eligible) and/or
- Have a documented disability
- Demonstrate an academic need

Contact Us:

407.823.4165

sss@ucf.edu

www.trio.sdes.ucf.edu

Student Support Services (TRiO) Programs

Services Provided:

- Academic tutoring
- Academic coaching
- Advice and assistance with course selection
- Assistance with information, completing and applying for Federal Financial Aid
- Education/counseling designed to improve financial and economic literacy
- Assistance in applying for admission to graduate and professional programs

Benefits to Students:

- Peer mentoring
- Access to computers and printers
- Graduate and professional school preparation including free access to study guides for the GRE, MCAT, DAT and more
- Professional and cultural events
- Opportunities for undergraduate research, service learning and leadership development
- Life management and academic success workshops