

Integrity and Ethical Development College Life Workshop Series Fall 2016

Email Etiquette

Thursday, September 8th
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 223

Email is the number one way we communicate with each other on campus. Learn all of the necessary elements required in sending a professional, well-written, and action-driven email message.

Picture Perfect Transcript

Wednesday, September 21st
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 223

Learn what scholarship committees, employers, and graduate schools want to see on a college transcript. Discover the real skills, qualities, and characteristics being demanded in today's graduate programs & work places.

Can Using Sites Such As Course Hero, Quizlet, & Chegg Get You In Trouble?

Tuesday, September 27th
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 223

Could be possible! Learn how to use such websites appropriately and avoid making a mistake which could lead to consequences in the classroom and with the University.

Consequences of Academic Misconduct

Thursday, September 29th
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 223

Acts of academic misconduct can lead to serious consequences, such as probation and suspension from the university. Learn what the consequences are if academic misconduct is committed.

"Sure, my friend, you can borrow my lab reports." Before You Do This, Know This:

Monday, October 3rd
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 220

Most students think cheating on a test is the only form of academic misconduct. Many students don't realize just being a "good Knight" can lead to bigger issues. Learn what UCF defines as academic misconduct in order to maintain academic integrity.

Reputation Building at UCF

Tuesday, October 4th
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 316CD

How is a reputation built? Learn how to create a professional image to gain a reputation built on positive character. Topics of discussion include how to effectively communicate with others, developing consistency in actions, and promoting one's skills and abilities.

Integrity and Ethical Development College Life Workshop Series Fall 2016

Developing Ethical Standards

Tuesday, October 11th
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 220

What are ethics? How do we develop a practice of ethical standards? How do we handle situations which may cause us to not act ethically? Learn how to articulate to others your own code of ethics.

Social Media Etiquette

Tuesday, October 25th
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 223

Reputation, perception, and image are three key factors college students must consider when engaging in social media outlets.

Learn how to establish a character consistent of integrity, civility, and respect when communicating and participating in social media.

IT IS OK to Get a Zero!

Thursday, November 3rd
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 223

Have you ever felt that if you received a zero on just one homework assignment your academic career is now ruined? Well, it is not! Learn how to stop negative self-talk regarding the need to be perfect. Receive a reality check on what grades really mean.

Letters of Recommendation

Tuesday, November 15th
2:00-3:00pm Student Union 223

It is important for college students to formulate positive relationships with faculty. Professionalism is the key to establishing a working relationship with one's professors. Learn how to appropriately ask for a letter of recommendation.

FREE!
ALL STUDENTS
WELCOME!

Freshmen Earn 1,000 LINK
Points for Each Session!

Jennifer Wright, Director
Integrity and Ethical Development
Jennifer.Wright@ucf.edu
Ferrell Commons 142
407-823-3477
www.ied.sdes.ucf.edu
Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities
Division of Student Development and Enrollment Services
University of Central Florida