

Integrity & Ethical Development College Life Workshop Series – Spring 2017

Plagiarism & Citations

Tuesday, January 24 | 1-2 PM
Library 235C

You may know what plagiarism is, but it can be hard to avoid.

Save time and frustration by attending this workshop, which will teach you what plagiarism is, how to avoid it, and how to properly use citations. In partnership with UCF Libraries.

Email Etiquette*

Tuesday, January 24 | 2-3 PM
Student Union 220

Email is the number one way we communicate with each other on campus. Learn all of the necessary elements required for a professional, well-written, and action-driven email message.

It's Ok To Get A Zero*

Wednesday, February 8 | 2-3 PM
Student Union 220

Have you ever felt that receiving a zero on just one assignment would ruin your academic career? Well, it won't! Learn how to stop negative self-talk regarding the need to be perfect. Receive a reality check on what grades really mean.

The UCF Creed: Learn It & Live It

Monday, February 20 | 1-2 PM
Student Union 218CD

UCF Knights are expected to uphold the tenets of the UCF Creed. What does it mean to demonstrate Integrity, Scholarship, Community, Creativity, and Excellence? This interactive session will teach you!

Plagiarism & Citations

Monday, February 27 | 1-2 PM
Library 235C

You may know what plagiarism is, but it can be hard to avoid.

Save time and frustration by attending this workshop, which will teach you what plagiarism is, how to avoid it, and how to properly use citations. In partnership with UCF Libraries.

Can Sites Like Course Hero, Quizlet, & Chegg Get You In Trouble?*

Wednesday, March 22 | 2-3 PM
Student Union 223

It's possible! Learn how to use such websites appropriately and avoid making mistakes that could have serious consequences both in the classroom and with the university.

Integrity & Ethical Development College Life Workshop Series – Spring 2017

Before You Do That, Know This*

Tuesday, March 28 | 2-3 PM
Student Union 221

"Sure, you can borrow my lab report!" Most students think cheating on a test is the only form of academic misconduct. Learn how UCF actually defines academic misconduct in order to maintain academic integrity.

Plagiarism & Citations

Wednesday, March 29 | 1-2 PM
Library 235C

You may know what plagiarism is, but it can be hard to avoid. Save time and frustration by attending this workshop, which will teach you what plagiarism is, how to avoid it, and how to properly use citations. In partnership with UCF Libraries.

Social Media Etiquette*

Wednesday, April 5 | 2-3 PM
Student Union 220

Reputation, perception, and image are three key factors college students must consider when engaging in social media outlets. Learn how to establish a character consisting of integrity, civility, and respect when participating in social media.

Recommendation Letters*

Tuesday, April 11 | 2-3 PM
Student Union 220

It's important for college students to formulate positive relationships with faculty. Professionalism is the key to establishing a working relationship with one's professors. Learn how to appropriately ask for a letter of recommendation.

Jennifer Wright, Director
Integrity and Ethical Development
jennifer.wright@ucf.edu | 407-823-3477
Ferrell Commons 7C 142 | www.ied.sdes.ucf.edu
Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities
Student Development and Enrollment Services
University of Central Florida

These sessions are FREE and all students are welcome to attend!
Earn 1,000 LINK points for attending any event marked with an *!