Academic Integrity

2014 Spring Admitted First-Time-in-College Students (freshmen) and Transfer Students

- The Academic Integrity modules aim to assist UCF students in becoming familiar with UCF's policies on academic misconduct, understand consequences of such misconduct, and most importantly, learn strategies of how to demonstrate academic integrity.

- Students will receive notification of these programs on their To-Do-List associated with their myUCF (posted on Thursday, January 2, 2014)

- Involves completing three separate/individual on-line Academic Integrity Modules:
  - Maintaining Academic Integrity
  - Tips for Success in Academic Integrity
  - Consequences of Academic Misconduct

- Friday, February 28, 2014 - Deadline for completion of the Academic Integrity Module (all 3 parts of the module must be successfully completed)

- Not automatically removed from to-do-list - The Office of Integrity and Ethical Development informs the Registrar’s Office on a weekly basis of students who have successfully completed all 3 sections of the module to have the requirement removed from their to-do-list

- The Academic Integrity module DOES NOT have to be completed by a student’s scheduled orientation date

- Completion of this module is NOT associated with an inability to receive financial aid awards or registering for classes during orientation
