Tips for a Successful Peer Tutoring Session

What should I bring to tutoring?

Textbook, lecture notes, prepared questions, a notebook or paper, writing utensils, and a willingness to participate

What should I NOT bring to tutoring?

Cell phone, gum, food, drinks and anything that could distract your peers

How do I get started at SARC?

Review the tutoring schedule to see when the course you need help with is offered. Arrive to appropriate location, sign in to TutorTrac with your PID and find your tutor. Ask for help with study skills, practice problems, or general concepts.

Who can use peer tutoring and how much does it cost?

Peer tutoring is FREE for all currently registered UCF students.

Why should I attend tutoring?

Students with consistent attendance at tutoring see a significant change in their understanding of course content and an increase in grades.

What if the course I need help with is not offered through SARC?

SARC offers peer tutoring at 3 unique locations, so be sure to check all 3 schedules. Besides peer tutoring, UCF offers students many academic resources including Supplemental Instruction, Math Lab, Writing Center and Veteran's Academic Resource Center.

Peer tutoring @ SARC, VARC and CECS is ALL free, ALL drop-in and for ALL UCF STUDENTS. Check our website for the most up to date schedule.

In addition to peer tutoring, SARC also offers:

Supplemental Instruction (SI), Academic Success Workshops, One-on-One Learning Skills Consultations, Learning Fair, Freshman Seminars, Online Tutoring and more.
